On June 29, 2026 we filed a public-records request with the Brunswick County Sheriff's Office, which the Office acknowledged. The request seeks the Office's ALPR / Flock records: any vendor contracts; the ALPR policy or SOP; camera counts and the areas they cover; the data-retention schedule; data-sharing agreements and MOUs (including with the New Hanover County Sheriff's Office, the SBI, ICE, CBP, and any nationwide lookup network); the Flock Organization and Network Audit for the most recent three months; and misuse or discipline records.

WECT confirmed the Office's Flock contract in June 2026, so responsive records exist. More than thirty-five days have now passed with no response. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 132-6 requires production "as promptly as possible."

Would you kindly update me on the status of the request by Friday? Most agencies have responded in less than 18 days.

I am happy to accept a rolling production.

With all best wishes,

~Mark
